

Thursday, November 18, 1937

Meeting was called to order by Paul Hudelson. Motion by Henderson May: that the student Council pay $22.50 out of their funds if we weaned the Elmhurst – Normal game. Seconded by Ross Fairchild. To question. The motion carried.

Discussion of point system. Motion by Henderson May: that we defer the discussion of the point system until the next meeting. Seconded by Ellen Sorrenson. Amendments by H. May: that that the two student members of the committee be invited to come to the meeting and discuss it with us. Seconded by Jay Barton. The motion carried.

Ross Fairchild, Henderson May, [] Campbell and Gail Baird on committee for Homecoming investigation. Jay Barton appointed to see the president into investigate the situation of where people eat their lunches. We will take the responsibility of keeping the room clean.

Student Council should have its own room for meetings. Meeting adjourned on motion.

Gail Baird
Secretary