

Thursday, January 20

Paul Hudelson opened the meeting. Roll was called and the minutes were read and approved. Ross Fairchild reported that the chairs and tables in the student lounge are in need of repair and it will cost as much to fix them as it would to purchase new ones. We next discussed with the Council has done this semester- what can we do to improve the Council?

Things accomplished this semester:

1. Homecoming bonfire
2. lunchroom
3. election rules
4. lock on bulletin board
5. senior jackets
6. []
7. point system
8. protests
9. student lounge payroll
10. holiday show
11. [] circular
12. fraternal [] A.S.U.
13. Newspaper – S.L.

Suggestions to improve Council

1. Suggestion box for suggestions and criticism
2. Ratio women and men- poor
3. “Pet Peeves” contest
4. Had a larger Council- two hours.

Senate

Chairman- Pres. Of Council-
12 class members

House

Chairman- O.P. of Student Counsel
members- Rep. Curriculum

George Palmer reported that a bulletin board would cost about $4.40. He is to plan it out. Jay Barton, Betty Starkey, Geraldine Dooley, Leonore Campbell and Gail Baird to work on “pet peeves” project. The meeting adjourned.

Gail Baird
Sec.